Kayleigh's Love Story

Fact Sheet 2016

Online grooming

Offenders will contact dozens of young people, communication will quickly become sexually explicit, any positive response will be seized on.

The grooming process can take twenty four hours or two years, offenders have all the time in the world to abuse a child.

Statistics

A recent Year 9 E Safety survey (2016) shows that dozens of young people do meet with strangers they have spoken to online.

3560 text messages were exchanged between an offender and a child over a twelve week period. This is not unusual.

In Leicestershire

In our area, the police tell us that Online Grooming is the biggest threat. In fact over half our Sexual Exploitation crimes are established online.

Spot the Signs

Virtual relationships are not safe; remind your children if even a friend requests an inappropriate photograph; it will be posted on the internet.

Remember

Your photo can be shared and it could go viral.
Let young people know the person they can talk to in school.

Talk to your children about healthy relationships and risky relationships.
